- No channel shall ever be deleted. All channels falling out of use must be archived.
- The new rules of the Discord server in entirety (and replacing the former rules) are:
- Authority rests with the highest rank present on the Discord, but serious matters should be held until the Commander is present. Follow authorities' instructions the first time you are asked.
- Prior is to be addressed as "Sir," "Chief," or "Commander."
- If you are visiting, please state your name and business. Enemy visitors must check in with an officer via DMs. NOTES FOR VISITORS: We do not dual enlist. If you plan to join RFCP, you must only be in this army. Spies will be brutally fed to the Grey Polar Bears.
- No advertising of other servers or links. This includes DM recruiting.
- No NSFW content except in #rfcp-after-dark.
- No trolling, bullying, racism, homophobia, antisemitism, ableism, agism, [any other "ism"], or targeting anyone in the server. Treat people kindly and avoid drama.
- Use channels for their correct purposes only. No spamming except in #coppypasta-. No discussing sensitive army info in public.
- No harvesting of personal information. Practice safe Internet usage.
- No jokes about hard drugs. The Commander's brother passed of an overdose and we respect that this is not funny to RFCP. Avoid other triggering language including self-harm and suicide in general channels. But reach out anytime for support in DMs if you are struggling. NOTE: Because of his volunteer work in mental health, Prior is a mandatory reporter.
- Make your account nickname @ pingable and keep profile pictures appropriate.
- By entering and choosing to remain in this server and army, you agree to these rules, and to the policies set forth in the other official RFCP documents available for your perusal.

[[>> IF YOU BREAK A RULE: The usual punishment sequence is as follows. 1) Warning (two if we're generous) 2) Required apology 3) Muted 4) Demoted 5) Kicked 6) Banned. However, the severity and order of these punishments is at the discretion of the Commander.
